

Kim Zavislak

Office Managing Partner, Asset Management Partner
KPMG, LLP

Ms. Zavislak has been with KPMG since September, 1998, and is a Partner in KPMG's Audit practice with extensive experience in providing business and financial reporting guidance to a wide spectrum of SEC registrants in the financial services industry. She also serves as an SEC Reviewing Partner for the public sector of KPMG's financial services practice.

Kim has served as the Columbus HR Audit partner, the alumni relations partner, and the private enterprise lead partner for the Columbus market hub. Other activities include: conducting governance training for both investment advisors and their boards and, assisting clients with complex matters including valuation of hard to value securities, complex capital structures, derivatives, reorganizations and consolidations.

Ms. Zavislak is well respected in the investment management industry and is a regular speaker and contributor at investment management forums. She is actively involved in the Columbus Community serving as co-chair for the Ohio Chapter of Women Corporate Directors and a board member and development committee co-chair for Junior Achievement of Central Ohio. Her volunteer experience also includes service to Lutheran Social Services of Columbus from 2006 to 2014 serving as Board Chair, Financial Committee Chair, Nominating & Board Development Committee member.

She received her Bachelor of Arts Accounting degree from Hillsdale College in 1998.